(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Statue of Richard Cœur de Lion, Westminster. This handsome equestrian statue in bronze, by Marochetti, stands in Old Palace Yard, between the Houses of Parliament and the Abbey. The pose of the horse and the attitude of the rider are at once striking, suggestive, and natural.

Dear Doc.

We are having a very happy time, and have been fortunate with decent weather. I hope you arrived home alright, and none the worse for your arduous duties. Kind regards to you.

Jim.
